

CORNPONE

Big Skid on his way to year 56
Crashed and burned his ZX6

Third year in a row
Why he boinked I don't know

One thing for certain
Again he be a hurtin

Out for a day ride with Al & Walt
They were ahead and not at fault

Waiting at a rest stop and Shid didn't show
They retraced their tracks don't ya know

They soon found Skid standing by the side of the road
A little worse for wear - so I am told

The ZX6 no where to be seen
Swallowed up by that cornfield
Oh that corn is mean!

It took that ZX6 all shinny and red
And beat the shit out of it until it was dead!

The moral of this story is just this
Don't mess with the corn - don't give it no DI S!
